TO EXPRESS OUR THANKS

The family of Roy Hudson extends our heartfelt thanks for each act of kindness and all expressions of sympathy during our hour of bereavement. May God bless each of you for your kindness to our family.

"Footprints in the Sand"

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord. Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky. In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand. Sometimes there were two sets of footprints, other times there was one set of footprints. This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat, I could see only one set of footprints. So I said to the Lord, "You promised me, Lord, that if I followed you, you would walk with me always. But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life there has only been one set of footprints in the sand. Why, when I needed you most, have you not been there for me?" The Lord replied, "The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, is when I carried you."

Dear Daddy,

I love you more than anything. You kept me safe for a long time. So here we go...

-Tanisha

To my dearest Dad....

I will never forget all you taught me about living life to its fullest, loving every moment of our temporary stay here on earth. With that being said, I will continue to stay humble and prayed up until we meet again.

-Forever, your girl....Wanda

Life Reflections...

ROY HUDSON was born September 8, 1934 in Sanford, Florida to the late George and Rosa Hudson. He relocated to Sodus, New York where he worked in the apple orchards.

He later moved to Rochester, where he met his wife, Carolyn Hollis-Hudson. They were married in 1977, and their union was blessed with three children. Roy loved his family. His children and grandchildren were his pride and joy. He derived great pleasure from just spending time with his family and taking his children on outings. He was a genuinely happy, nurturing individual who also enjoyed fishing, boxing, playing cards, driving fancy cars, and dressing in his fine clothes. During the “afro” era, he wore his proudly...full and combed to the front. He continued to wear that style despite his children’s efforts to convince him to change the style.

Roy began studying with Jehovah’s Witnesses soon after moving to Rochester. He loved being in the ministry, and he was faithful to that ministry for 43 years.

Roy was a “Jack of all Trades.” He was gifted in many areas. He worked at a refinery and Rochester Smoltering Company.

Roy completed his earthly journey October 14, 2021, predeceased by his parents, George and Rosa Hudson; two sons, Brian Miller and Kelvin Johnson; two brothers, Troy (his twin) and Steve Hudson. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Carolyn Hudson (Mama Carolyn); his daughters: Wanda D. (Ricky) Dickerson, Tanisha R. Hudson, Tamara (Blair) Vanardo; one son, Kenneth Hudson; 13 grandchildren: Bryon Miller, Derrika Johnson, Jasmen Leonard, Dean Judy, Rickia Dickerson, Jalonnne Rhim, Kendall Nathan, Nasir Nathan, Alexander Kellum, Hasani Kellum, Hailey Kellum, Thyerri Kellum, and Cara Kellum; 17 great-grandchildren, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, Kingdom Hall family and friends.
