

Obituary

Murlyn Harrison was born November 28, 1947 in Coffee County Alabama to her parents the late Curt Harrison and Jessie Mae Scott, she was raised in Alabama along with her 4 sisters and 2 brothers. Murlyn moved to Rochester New York in 1969, where she met the love of her life, Jesse C. Wilson.

Murlyn and Jesse had 2 children a son the late Jesse B. Harrison and a daughter Jessica Harrison plus their granddaughter Makya Hamilton.

The couple loved each other for over 40 years. Murlyn worked as a bus monitor for A&E for a number of years, before deciding to become a stay at home mom.

She enjoyed having cookouts and spending time with family and friends, and would always let you know what was on her mind.

Sadly on April 17th she passed away peacefully in her sleep, she will be deeply missed.

Inner beauty is everything.

People are like stained-glass windows.
They sparkle and shine when the sun is out,
but when the darkness sets in; their true beauty
is revealed
only if there is a light from within.
